

with the eighth and ninth month, but if any of you would like to see this, I can certainly give you a copy. But what I went to the seventh month because just recently I heard a young woman speak who is 15 years old who was aborted when she was 7 months in her mother's womb and she survived and has grown up to carry a message to people that abortion isn't a way. She was adopted by wonderful parents and she is leading a useful and productive life and is doing some things that are meaningful to all of us. So that's why I wanted to go to the seventh month because she's a remarkable young woman; and if you would see and hear her, I think you might have some different feelings. But just to go back to what I originally started, I wanted to...

PRESIDENT MOUL: One minute.

SENATOR CROSBY: ...put all these things in the record so we understand that we call it a surgical procedure, it is a surgical procedure. Anyone that gets any kind of surgical procedure, that is minutely described to them ahead of time what's going to happen, and I think that this shouldn't be any different than any other. I think you should be able to make a good decision and understand what's going to happen to you when you go to the clinic to have the abortion. Or if you decide to have the baby, then there again you should know when that's going to happen and that when you have the baby you have this little live person that you have to take care of. And that's the second and the last thing I'll say. I will continue to support helping those people who need help to take care of those babies, financial and otherwise. Thank you.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Senator Crosby. Senator Vrtiska.

SENATOR VRTISKA: Thank you, Madam President, members of the body. I had risen, I had turned on my light for the purpose of speaking to this bill, but looking at the hour I guess I would move to recess until one-thirty this afternoon.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Senator Vrtiska. Mr. Clerk, are there items for the record?

CLERK: Amendments to be printed, Madam President, to LB 231 by Senator Ashford; an explanation of vote from Senator Robak (LB 517, LB 720, LB 444 and LB 635). That's all that I have.

PRESIDENT MOUL: Thank you, Mr. Clerk. While the Legislature is
